FRONTEND DEVELOPER | UX RESEARCH | AGILE METHODOLOGIES | SCRUM MASTER

073 392 5118 · melina.kamyab@scania.com · Katarina Bangata 59B, 11642 Stockholm

I am a frontend developer with experience in UX research and interface design. My recent work has involved conducting research, translating findings into interface designs, developing the frontend and evaluating usability through user testing. This hands-on experience connects my understanding of user needs with practical development skills. I also bring a background as a Scrum Master, facilitating collaboration between technical and non-technical teams

KEY ACHIEVEMENTS

UX Research and Frontend Development

Took an interface from UX research and design through frontend development and usability testing.

Reusable UI Components

Built reusable components for a shared library to standardize interface design and support future development.

Angular to React Migration

Facilitated a frontend migration from Angular to React.

Agile Team Facilitation

Held Scrum ceremonies and supported continuous improvement as a Scrum Master.

EXPERIENCE

Scania · Ventures and New Business 06/2024 – Present

Frontend Developer | UX Research & Interface Design 03/2026 – Present

Confidential project · Following parental leave (2025–2026)

— Conducted UX research and translated the findings into user interface designs for a confidential project

— Developed the frontend, taking the interface from design to a working implementation

— Evaluated the interface through usability testing with users and tested the implementation on the target hardware

Frontend Developer & Scrum Master · Elain 06/2024 – 02/2025

— Developed reusable UI components for a shared library to standardize interface design and support future frontend development.

— As the Scrum Master, I facilitated Scrum ceremonies and ensured the team had everything they needed to achieve sprint goals. I also focused on continuous improvement, encouraging the team to learn from both successes and challenges to enhance the workflow.

Queenslab 04/2022 – 06/2024

Frontend Developer Consultant

Client: Scania · Ventures and New Business · Project: Elain

— Led frontend development of internal admin platform, delivering scalable code empowering internal data management.

— Implemented Agile and served as Scrum Master, facilitating ceremonies and improving team productivity and transparency.

— Led migration from Angular to React, ensuring smooth adoption, improved performance, and easier hiring.

— Introduced a UX process covering research, wireframing and user testing, and developed the frontend for Elain's registration flow. Formalized the process with defined team roles and review checkpoints as the team grew.

— Developed platforms, fixed frontend/backend bugs, and acted as client-facing technical liaison between business and engineering.

Frontend developer Intern 10/2021 – 04/2022

Kreditz

— Developed the frontend of Kreditz customer facing portal in collaboration with a classmate

— Actively participated in an Agile team, handling Scrum ceremonies and utilizing Jira for project management

— Initially a one-semester internship, extended due to the high quality of my work

EXPERIENCE

Social secretary 06/2018 – 04/2021

Värmdö Municipality

— Supported individuals far from the job market, focusing on guiding them towards self-sufficiency

— Managed difficult, often confrontational conversations, using de-escalation techniques to calm anger and frustration

— Motivated clients to actively engage in their recovery and future planning

— Collaborated with healthcare providers to create and adjust individualized support plans based on client progress

Co-founder and Deputy director 08/2012 – 01/2018

Migrationskonsulterna AB

— Co-founded and managed Migrationskonsulterna, a company dedicated to providing housing and civic introduction for unaccompanied minors and newly arrived families in Sweden

— Spearheaded initiatives to help young unaccompanied minors integrate into society, focusing on their personal development, independence, and self-sufficiency

— Successfully guided all minors under our care towards becoming independent adults, achieving measurable growth in their social and professional skills

— Oversaw the daily operations, including program development, and collaboration with local authorities

Desk Officer 12/2013 – 01/2014

Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Sweden

— Transitioned from a 20-week internship to a fixed-term employment contract in the Department for the EU Internal Market and the Promotion of Sweden and Swedish Trade

— Led a project focused on producing comprehensive statistics and conducting a qualitative analysis of the trade promotion activities of Swedish embassies

— Delivered actionable insights that informed strategic decisions on enhancing Sweden's trade promotion efforts globally
